Edinburgh, Monday, November 17, 1746.

From the London Gazette, Nov. 11.

Hague, Nov. 15.

WE hear from Cadiz, that several Settees had being hired there by the Intendant, to carry to the Mediterranean 500 Men that were to be draughted out of the Troops of that Garrison, though it only consisted of 4 Battalions, and they far from compleat; and that the same Vessels were to call at Ceuta, in their Way, to take on board likewise another Draught from that Garrison. By Advices from Carthage, all the Troops there are marched for Catalonia, and the Inhabitants mounted Guard, and did Duty in their room. M. Navarro, who was Commander in Chief of the Spanish Squadron at Carthage, had been disgraced, and succeeded by M. d'Anteil a Frenchman, who was the Rear-Admiral under him. Letters from Madrid mention, that it was reported that a Resolution had been taken by the Court to reinforce their Army in Italy, by ordering the Troops that were in the Principality of Catalonia to march thither, and that some Battalions were to be drawn off from Majorca and other Places, for the same Purpose.

Whitehall, Nov. 11. This Day his Majesty, his Royal Highness the Duke, and the rest of the Royal Family, came from Kensington to St. James's, to reside there during the Winter.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, Nov. 11.

His Majesty being come this Morning to St. James's, the Birth-Day will be kept on Thursday next the 13th instant.

From Wye's Letter, London, Nov. 11.

The 6 Mails due from Ireland are arrived, by which we are informed that the York and other three Men of War, with the Transports having the Soldiers under Gen. Sinclair on board, arrived the 30th past at Cork, from the Expedition to Brittany.

'Tis adviced, that Charles Knowles, Esq; Governour of Cape Breton, has been by some Person unknown, shot at several Times, but blessed be God, he escaped with his Life.

His Majesty's most gracious Speech next Tuesday to the Parliament, is exceedingly long'd after, in order to give us a true Light into this great and intricate Juncture of Affairs.

From the General Evening Post, Nov. 11.

LONDON, Nov. 11.

By private Letters from the Hague we have an Account, that a particular Courier was arrived at Breda from Berlin, who, amongst other Dispatches, brought a Letter with the following remarkable Superfcription: For the Ministers assembling or assembled, at Breda, to be by them jointly perused, in order to take their respective Measures accordingly.—The Politicians at the Hague say, that (whatever the Contents of this Letter may be) the Grand Balance Master's principal View in it, is to make known his open, upright Dealing and Integrity, and clear himself from any Suspicion of listening to the secret Intrigues of particular Courts.

From the London Evening Post, Nov. 11.

Extract of a private Letter from Nice, Oct. 28.

His Sardinian Majesty's Forces took Possession of the Castle of Vintimiglia on the 24th, the Garrison, consisting of 250 Men, surrendering Prisoners of War. We are informed that Prince Lichenstein is speedily to return to Milan, in order to take upon him the Command of 30,000 Men that are to act against Naples, and the Generals Serbelloni and Piccolomini are to act under him. Count Brown is to come hither by Sea, and the Marquess de Botta will remain at Genoa with a considerable Body of Forces. All Things are in good Condition here, our King has punctually fulfilled his Engagements, and as soon as the Austrian Troops arrive we shall certainly make an Irruption into Provence, our Vaudois having secured all the Passages for the March of the Cavalry.

LONDON, Nov. 11.

Private Letters from Paris say, that two great Councils were held the 4th and 5th of November at Fontainebleau, in which the King was present: That Marshal Belleisle was sent for the next Day, and had on the 7th a very long Conference with M. d'Argenson; after which it was reported, the Siege of Luxembourg was resolved upon, and that the Marshal is to command the Army which is to form it. They talk of a large Body of Saxons which are to be taken into his Most Christian Majesty's Pay, which however are not to act offensively unless the Austrians should actually fall on Naples, and in that Case they are to be employ'd in Italy.

By a Letter from an English Ship at Shilo, a Harbour in the West of the Naze in Norway, we have an Account that a Hoy belonging to Jutland was arrived there, having on board three Scots Gentlemen who came from the North of Scotland, where they hired the Vessel to carry them to Gottenbourg, from whence they intended for Stockholm.—One of them is very old, and the other two young. They are full of Money, and seem to have been Persons of Consequence in the late Rebellion.

On Monday last Orders were issued for the following Gentlemen, who came from Cape Breton, to return to Boston to their respective Posts under the Command of General Pepperall, viz. James Dagnall, Esq; Captain;

Mr. Thomas Middleton and Mr. James Stewart, Lieutenants; Mr. John Legard and Mr. John Armstrong, Ensigns.

A Gordon is formed by the Allies, to cover the Bishoprick of Liege, consisting of 10000 Men, and the other Troops are said to be so disposed, that 20 or 30,000 Men may be drawn together in less than 24 Hours.

Her Royal Highness the Princess of Hesse will embark for Holland the 14th instant.

On Saturday the Court sat at St. Margaret's Hill, Southwark, on the Trials of the Rebel Prisoners, when John Farquharson, a Captain in Colonel Farquharson's Regiment, withdrew his former Plea of Not Guilty, and pleaded Guilty.

Colin Mackenzie of Ballone, a Lad about 19 Years of Age, a Captain, and Roderick Mackenzie an Ensign, (a Tenant to the Earl of Cromarty) both in his Regiment, were acquitted. The Rev. Mr. James Robertson, Minister of the Parish of Lochbroom, where they lived, gave them the Character of Persons well affected to his Majesty. They were taken Prisoners in the Castle of Dunrobin, in the Shire of Sutherland, by the Sutherland Militia.

The Trials of George Law, Adam Hay, Alexander Grant, and Andrew Spreul, are put off till the 15th of December.

Yesterday the Court sat again, when Nicholas Glascoe a Major in Lord Ogilvie's second Battalion in the Rebel Army was tried. It appeared by the Evidences in Defence of the Prisoner, four of whom were Officers in the Service of the King of France, that he was a Lieutenant in Dillon's Regiment in the same Service; and that he was a Native of France, born at St. Germain's-en-Ley; and thereupon he was acquitted, and ordered to be detained as a French Prisoner.

Then the Court adjourned till Saturday Morning.

In the Course of this Trial the Counsel for the Prisoner offered the Cartel signed at Franckfort, in Evidence for him; and upon the Jury's bringing him in Not Guilty, the Court immediately ordered his Bolts to be struck off. That Part of the Cartel which related to Major Glascoe, is in the two following Articles, viz.

Art. I. All the Prisoners of War, of what Nation or Condition soever they may be without any Exception, who have been taken on either Side by the Armies at War, and their Auxiliaries, since the 15th of June, of this present Year, about the Mayne and Rhine, or who may hereafter be taken in any other Country, wheresoever the said Armies shall happen to go, shall be exchanged or ransomed within the Space of a Month, to begin from the Day of the Signing this present Cartel, as shall be explained more at large in the 39th Article. And the respective Generals of the Armies at War, and their Auxiliaries, shall agree among themselves upon the Place for the first reciprocal Exchange and Ransom of the Prisoners to be returned on each Side.

Art. II. All Prisoners of War, of whatever Nation and Condition they may be, without any Exception, who shall happen to be taken on either Side, after the first Exchange or Ransom, by the Armies or Garrisons of the Parties at War, and their Auxiliaries: whether in Battle, Combats, Taking of Places, Parties, or any other Ways, shall be returned, bona fide, in fifteen Days after their being made Prisoners, or as soon as may be, by Exchange of Prisoners of the same Rank or Equivalent, or of others, by making a due and proper Allowance, or else shall pay their Ransoms at the Rate hereafter set down, viz. in German Florins, or two Livres ten Sols French Money.

We are very well informed, that a Writ of certiorari has been issued for bringing into the Court of King's Bench, the Record of the Conviction of the Hon. Mr. Ratcliffe, Brother to the late Earl of Derwentwater, of High Treason in the Year 1716, in order to call him down to his former Judgment.

It is said that Archibald Stewart, Esq; late Lord Provost of Edinburgh, who has been for some Months a close Prisoner in the Tower of London, on a Secretary of State's Warrant, will be very soon brought to his Trial in Westminster-Hall, and that several Witnesses are coming up from the North on that Account.

There is an Account, that General Keith, one of the chief Commanders of the Russian Forces, was arrived at Berlin, but upon what Errand is not known.

EDINBURGH, November 17.

From Glasgow, that on the 10th of September last, the Prince George, Coulter; and the Glasgow, Montgomery, two Ships belonging to that Place, when within a Day's Sail of Virginia, fell in with the Terrible, Action, Glory and Triton, four French Men of War, of 40, 60, 70, and 80 Guns, in their Way from the West-Indies to Cape Breton, who after taking out the Men and Goods, set Fire to the Ships. On their missing the Duke d'Anville's Squadron at Cape Breton, they set Sail for France, and about the 16th of October, 260 Leagues West of Ireland, met with an Irish Vessel, on Board of which, they put the Crews of the two Ships, after taking out of her what they thought proper.

next, who informs, that a Messenger set out with him from London on Wednesday last, with Reprieves to the Prisoners at Carlisle, and that it was expected another would be dispatched the next Day to the same Place.

By a Letter from Carlisle, dated the 14th instant, we have Advice that a Messenger arrived there that Morning, and brought Reprieves to Thirty eight Prisoners, that ten were ordered to Execution, that more Reprieves were every Moment expected, and that the particular Persons appointed to suffer could not with Certainty be condescended upon as yet.

The Prisoners in the City Jail have been under Examination successively for some Days past.

Yesterday the Hon. Colonel Lee, Captains Henly and Shaftly, set out from this Place for London.
